

MEET-WALK-BECOME

BRAAM FAMILY'S 10TH ANNIVERSARY

“He who walks with the wise will become wise...”
Proverbs 13: 20a

Before walking with someone, you meet them. Every situation in our lives is an opportunity to encounter something or rather to meet somebody. Are you someone that is addicted to drugs or alcohol abuse? Have you been going from relationship to relationship? Put in mind that those situations are opportunities to encounter someone.

We cannot know that we were taking a wrong treatment until we realize that the treatment does not do what it was supposed to do.

We become sure that we are with the wrong person when we realize that we are going where we were not supposed to go and that we know there is no hope. That is when we need to meet JESUS CHRIST.

When a woman is pregnant she usually cries, whines and complains. These reactions depend on situations. It might be pain, or disappointment, or fear, or even for no valid reason. But as human beings we can recognize a cry that is just noise and the one of which something is about to happen.

Jesus is the one who gives pregnancy not only to women but to men as well. When you meet him you get pregnant, meaning He puts something in you from Him that needs development within you just like a women's pregnancy. The pregnancy may cause you to cry of pain and it may seem like nobody cares, you need to understand that it is all just part of the process. A time will come when your cries will be different from the one made out of pain. This new cry will bring out the revelation of what has been concealed and cultivated in you long before a result for the world to be happy and see the glory of our heavenly Father. But before all this, you need to encounter Jesus.

Sometimes in our world, we refuse to come across with Jesus and that is making the world wait so long to see the Father's Glory. When an alcohol addict decides to give up drinking, 10 more people do the same. This goes to show that your everyday decision can cause a ripple effect whereby people follow your actions or decisions in order to find his place in this world.

Many people cannot listen nor understand the voice of God then they decide because of their love for Him to walk after those who are called His sons and daughters. Understand that you are an influencer, who is followed by 10 people in your daily life and by 100 on social media and millions you meet every single second.

This trending idea of: “I am who I am and nobody can change that. I will not live my life to please people” is diabolical. It cultivated hatred and people only follow those who love them. They go where they believe they will be welcomed even concerning God. So if you think you do not need to change yourself for other people then do it for Christ. Yes of course the Bible shuns hypocrisy but honesty does not directly mean you are in truth. It is our duty to improve our lives for ourselves and for Christ above it all.

You are a letter sent to this world by God. The question is if you have met Him and you walk with him, are you still giving to the world when it sees you as a good message or a right one!?

The final thing is to work with Jesus so that you will become. Abraham walked with God and he became God’s friend. When you walk with Daddy God you become a god. God’s nature does not include screaming or yelling but speaking. When you walk with God you speak and the creation hears your voice. In the book of John 15:15, Jesus says: “I no longer call you servant but friends.” Beyond the service there is another dimension which is friendship because servants don't know what their master does but the friends know.

The Bible says in John 8:32: “You shall know the truth and the truth will make you free.” Free to bring change, a freedom that brings anointing. There are four types of anointing:

- (1) Anointing of Joseph: First Minister and Entrepreneur,
- (2) Anointing of Solomon: intelligent and a writer,
- (3) Anointing of Daniel: ability to link the intellectual world to the divine one,
- (4) Anointing of Jesus Christ, the young Man of Nazareth: the one who changed the world forever at only 33 years old.

As we all have goals in our lives, it is important that they are aligned to the will of God for our lives. It is important to meet people that will walk you to your destiny as well. Change is inevitable but it is worth it if it is done for Jesus.
